MEP meets PN activists in Gozo

A full day of appointments held by MEP Simon Busuttil in Gozo, was brought to a end by a district meeting with Nationalist party activists, at PN sub-headquarters, Sannat.

Flanked by PN treasurer Mr. Peter Darmanin, PN district manager Mr. Kevin Sciberras and party candidates hailing from the 13th electoral district, Dr. Busuttil answered questions and reacted to comments of interest concerning our rights as EU citizens.

Dr. Busuttil discussed in the detail the implications of Malta's entry into Schengen area and the acquired rights for passengers as of next year. Other topics discussed were; car registration tax, university courses in radiology and other specific health streams, fixed term contracts and Gozo's regionality within EU Accession Treaty.

Simon Busuttil maintains regular contact with Gozitan representative bodies and constituency in general.

During the day Simon Busuttil met primary school students at Bishop Conservatory School in Victoria and discussed the Euro. Amongst other meetings, Dr. Busuttil also visited a meat processing facility in Xewkija and met Mr Godwin Cutajar, contemporary artist from Victoria.
